

Grand Island Public Schools HOUSING

Course Length: One semester

Grade Levels: 11, 12

Prerequisite Courses: None

Course Description:

This course addresses how to acquire, create, design, and maintain a living environment for self and future family. Students also explore housing careers.

Housing Course Standards

As a result of their participation in this course, students will:

- Develop an awareness of the importance of homes to individuals, families and society.
- Explore careers related to housing.
- Explore the history of architectural design.
- Understand basic principles of designing homes for today.
- Compare and contrast the difference between renting and buying.
- Design elements and principles as they relate to housing issues.
- Plan interior environments.
- Develop and practice home maintenance and decorating skills.